EXPERIENCE

COGNIZANT

MEAN Stack Domain | 31 January , 2023 - Present

- I worked on a Verizon project as a UI Developer | Programmer Analyst Trainee.
- Contributed to the enhancement of Verizon's telecommunications management system to improve user experience and efficiency.
- Collaborated with the development team to analyze user requirements and design intuitive user interfaces for the telecommunications management system.
- Implemented front-end enhancements using AngularJS to improve the usability and functionality of the application.
- Conducted usability testing and gathered feedback from users to iteratively refine the UI design and enhance user satisfaction.
- Technologies Used: AngularJS, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, RESTful APIs

PROJECTS

EComplaints using MEAN Stack | 31 January , 2023 - 30 June , 2023

- Technologies Used : Angular, ExpressJS, NodeJS and MongoDB.
 - Easy way to raise the complaints for customers to log complaint online.

- Customer can Raise a complaint and Check the status of the complaint based on complaint id.
 - Admin can Assign priority to complaint like low , medium and high and Set the status of the complaint like open or closed.

Defensive Modeling of Fake News Through Online Social Networks | April , 2023

- Technologies Used : Python, Django-ORM, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MySQL.
- Here it is use to Trace Fake Profiles in Social Networks using machine learning techniques.

CAPTCHA | November , 2022

- Technologies Used : HTML, CSS, JavaScript.
- CAPTCHA offers protection from remote digital entry by making sure only a human being with the right password can access your account.
- CAPTCHA works because computers can create a text and process a response, but they can't read or solve the problem the way a human must to pass the test.
